

ANOTHER SAD SONG

Words don't mean a thing
 If you don't speak them from the heart
 But the fire of truth burns bright
 When I love you in the dark

It's been so long, since I've found
 Found a place, to belong
 So take your time
 But please be mine

'Cause I don't want to sing another sad song
 Don't want to feel another heartbreak
 I don't want to spend another night alone
 Just staring at the ceiling wide awake
 All I want and all I need
 Is you and your love

Life ain't like the movies
 The sun can turn to rain
 But storms are meant to test us
 And how we deal with the pain

But you can shelter
 In my arms
 Till the worst
 Passes through
 So take me now
 And I'll hold you

'Cause I don't want to sing another sad song
 Don't want to feel another heartbreak
 I don't want to spend another night alone
 Just staring at the ceiling wide awake
 All I want and all I need
 Is you and your love

'Cause I don't want to sing another sad song
 I don't want to feel another heartbreak
 I don't want to spend another night alone
 Just staring at the ceiling wide awake
 All I want and all I need
 All I care for more than the air I breathe
 All I want and all I need
 Is you and your love
